

Post/Socialist Memory Cultures in Transition

2nd PoSoCoMeS Conference

20-23 September 2023,

Tallinn University, Tallinn, Estonia

Programme

Wed, 20 September

Tallinn University, M-218

14.00 Opening (Tallinna saal)

14.30-15.30 Keynote 1: Tatiana

Zhurzhenko: The Politics of Memory in the Ukrainian-Russian Conflict: From the Orange Revolution to the Annexation of Crimea to Russia's Full-Scale invasion, chair Eneken Laanes (Tallinna saal)

15.30-16.00 Break

16.00-18.00 Parallel Panels 1

18.00 Reception

Thu, 21 September

Tallinn University, M-218

9.30-11.30 Parallel Panels 2

11.30-12.00 Break

12.00-13.00 Keynote 2: Erica Lehrer:

Decolonial Museology Re-centered: Thinking Theory and Practice through East-Central Europe, chair Pille Runnel (Tallinna saal)

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-16.00 Parallel panels 3

16.00-16.30 Break

16.30-17.30 Keynote 3: Joanna

Wawrzyniak: How Else to Remember the 1990s: Towards New Histories/Memories of (Post)Socialism, chair Ene Kõresaar (Tallinna saal)

19.00 Reading and Conversation:
Volodymyr Rafeenko (with Anna Verschik)
(hybrid)

Estonian Writer's Union, Harju 1

Fri, 22 September

Tallinn University, M-218

9.30-11.30 Parallel Panels 4

11.30-12.00 Break

12.00-13.00 Keynote 4: Andrea Pető:

Illiberal Memory Politics, chair Siobhan Kattago (Tallinna saal)

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-15.00 Keynote 5: Maria Mälksoo:

Translation Troubles: Russia's War on Ukraine and the Lessons of World War II in International Memory Politics, chair Dovilė Budrytė (Tallinna saal)

15.00-15.30 Break

15.30-17.30 Parallel Panels 5

17.30-18.30 ERC Information Session

19.00 Conference Dinner

Sat, 23 September

10.00-14.00 Museum visit and field trip

Day 1: Wed, 20 September, 16.00-18.00, Parallel Panels 1

Room M213 P1.1 Museum Narratives: Creating and Transforming Canons	Room M342 P1.2 Translating Memories: Multidirectional Memory of Different Regimes	Room M649 P1.3 Representing Memory: Art, Film, Theatre	Room M328 P1.4 Decolonization, Decentralization	Room M225 P1.5 Memory Activism and Changing Solidarities	Room M648 P1.6 Roundtable : Weaponizing History in Russia's War against Ukraine: Cross-Cultural and Cross-Platform Perspectives (hybrid)
Chair: Ene Kõresaar, University of Tartu Valentyna Kharkhun, Nizhyn Mykola Gogol State University, 90th Anniversary of the Holodomor: How Is the Great Famine Exhibited in Ukrainian Museums? Ekaterina A. Olson Shipyatsky, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, A Ghost in the Museum: The Memorial at Miła 18 and the Oyneg Shabbos Milk Cans Maria Kobielska and Kinga Siewior, Jagiellonian University, Cracow, Peripheral (Non)Polishnesses:	Chair: Aigi Heero, Tallinn University Tímea Jablonczay, Milton Friedman University, Multidirectional Memorial Processes in Hungarian Literary Publicity during the 1960s and 1970s Simona Mitroiu, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, (Re)mediations of Traumatic Pasts and Generations of Memory in Herta Müller's Writings Bernadette Ščasná, Tallinn University, What Do Novels Teach Us About the Past and	Chair: Ina Belcheva, Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University Edward Tyerman, University of California, Berkeley, Traces of Friendship, Ghosts of Empire: Remembering the Sino-Soviet Alliance in Contemporary Russian and Chinese Cinema. Daria Gordeeva, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München, The Soviet Union and the GDR in Film: How Historical Feature Films (Re-)Construct the Socialist Past Mischa Twitchin,	Chair: Anna Gresza, University of Amsterdam Jessica Ortner, University of Copenhagen, The Namibian Kids – Colonial History in the GDR Alena Pfoser, Loughborough University, Memories and Imperial Legacies in Russian Tourism to Post-Soviet Cities Nataliia Shuliakova, Central European University in Budapest and Vienna, "Mom of the South" and "A Country within the State": Revisiting the	Chair: Till Hilmar, University of Vienna Iona Ramsay, University of Exeter, Memory of the Communist Past in Transnational Activism: Romania's 2018 Referendum on Redefining Marriage Zoltan Dujisin, Université Catholique de Louvain, National Memory Institutes: Therapeutic Historiography in Illiberal Times Ilya Malafei, Maastricht University, The Work of Mourning in the Belarusian 2020 Protests	Chair: Daria Khlevnyuk, University of Amsterdam Elena Pilipets and Marloes Geboers, University of Siegen, University of Amsterdam, (online) Propaganda Videos and Counter-Mobilizations of Sound on WarTok Daria Khlevnyuk and Boris Noordenbos, University of Amsterdam, Temporality Reconsidered: Historical References in Russian State Media Coverage of the Russo-Ukrainian War

Museums, Creeping Conflicts, and Transformative Frictions Riikka Taavetti, University of Turku, Freedom and Liberty in Museums: Temporality and Empathy in Vabamu, Estonia, and Werstas, Finland	Present?: An Analysis of How The Devil's Workshop Unravels the Past to Its Local and Global Readers Hanna Aunin, Tallinn University, Transformation of the Memory of Soviet Mass Deportations in Estonia: From The Awakening (1989) to In the Crosswind (2014)	University of London, Translation, Memory, and an "Aesthetics of Care" Agata Koprowicz, University of Warsaw, Painting Memories on Barn Doors: The Silent Memorial project (2017-) and Local Memory in the Polish Countryside	Odesa Myth in Contemporary Ukraine Hanna Sjöberg, independent scholar and artist, Baltic Sea Memory Exhibit At the Waters Edge 2017-2018	Naum Trajanovski, University of Warsaw and Ivan Nikolovski, Central European University, Making the Nation's Red Lines: The Role of Macedonian Intellectuals in Bulgaria-North Macedonia Dispute over History, Memory and Identity	Aleksey Kamenskikh, Bremen University, (online), The Effect of the Substitutive Analogy in Russian Public Discourse of the War: 2014-2022
--	---	--	---	--	---

Day 2: Thu, 21 September, 9.30-11.30, Parallel Panels 2

Room 213 P2.1 Museums and Monuments as Political Media	Room M342 P2.2 Translating Memories: Difficult Heritage, Comparisons and Entanglements	Room M649 P2.3 Public History in Practice: State Initiative and Public Participation in the Co-creation of Narratives of Collective Trauma in Central and Eastern Europe I (online)	Room M328 P2.4 Folk and Nouveau-Folk: Indigenous and Authentic Voices in Post-Socialist Russia	Room M225 P2.5 Shared, Omitted and Contested Memories	Room M648 P2.6 Ukrainian Heritage at War: Vulnerability and Resilience of the National Identity (hybrid)	Room M135 P2.7 Politics of Memory in Communist Czechoslovakia and Post-Communist Czechia and Slovakia
Chair: Kirsti Jõesalu, University of Tartu Margaret Tali and Redi Koobak, Estonian Academy of Arts, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, What's in a Title? 'Rendering Race' as a Battleground for Rewriting History Małgorzata Głowacka Grajper and Małgorzata Łukianow, University of Warsaw, Soviet deportations as Agonistic Memory?	Chair Anastasia Felcher, Vera and Donald Blinken Open Society Archives at CEU Gruia Badescu, University of Konstanz, "Negative Heritage" in Southeastern Europe: Local and Transnational Entanglements in Memorializing Political Prisons after the End of Socialism Julie Deschepper, Utrecht University, Contesting Monuments Globally: Post-Socialist and	Chair: Liucija Vervečkienė, Vilnius University Odetta Rudling, Lund University, Juozas Ambrazevicius-Brazaitis' memory in the Light of the 80th Anniversary of 1941 Uprising in Lithuanian SSR: The Debates of the Public Space Sebastian Graf, Lund University, Art and Affect — Assembling Ukrainian Virtual Museums of War Per Anders Rudling, Lund	Chair: Elo-Hanna Seljamaa, University of Tartu Karina Lukin, University of Helsinki, Remembering Folklore: The Appeal of the Epic in Nenets Irina Hanzerova's Poetry Tintti Klapuri, University of Helsinki, Displacement and Nostalgia in the Kola Sámi Writer Askold Bazhanov's Autobiographical poetry Jenniliisa Salminen,	Chair: Ksenia Robbe, University of Groningen Kapitolina Fedorova and Natalia Tšuiikina, Tallinn University, Photos of the Past and Discursive Mechanisms of Shared Memories: Facebook Group "Советская Эстония – Eesti NSV" Alexandra Yatsyk, University of Lille, University of Tartu, Baltic Russophones and Emptiness: The Case of the Soviet-era	Chair: Margaret Comer, University College London Kateryna Goncharova, Ukrainian Heritage Crisis Specialist at World Monuments Fund, Historic Preservation in Post-Soviet Ukraine and How it Reflects the Value of Authenticity, National Identity and the War Valentyna Kharkhun, Nizhyn Mykola Gogol State University, Decolonization in Action: Dealing with (Un)wanted	Chair: Ivan Nikolovski, Central European University Marie Černá, Czech Academy of Sciences, Victory Day celebrations in communist Czechoslovakia and their Legacy in Today's Czechia. Markéta Devátá, Czech Academy of Sciences, Politics of memory in communist Czechoslovakia. Petra Hudek (Švardová), Slovak Academy of Sciences, Lenin

Commemorations of Communist and Non-Communist Polish Armed Forces in Contemporary Poland Douglas Ong, University of Greifswald, Bringing Wrocław into Poland: Analysis on the Kresy Expulsions' Depiction in the Depot History Centre in Contemporary Poland	Post-Colonial Iconoclasms in Dialogue Caterina Preda, University of Bucharest, Transnational Memory of Dictatorships from a Cross-Regional Perspective between South America and Eastern Europe Anna Topolska, independent scholar, Memory and Non-Memory in the Poznań Urban Space: Art and the Difficult Past	University, Memories of the Belorussian Peoples' Republic at its 100th Anniversary Tomas Sniegon, Lund University, Soviet Marshal Konev's Posthumous Battle of Municipal District Prague 6	University of Helsinki Representing Minorities through Folklore and Fantasy: Tatars in Guzel Yakhina's Zuleikha and Finnish Russians in Susanna Hynynen and Dess Terentjeva's Neonkaupunki Series Angela Brintlinger, Ohio State University, Nouveau-Folk in Post-Soviet Song and Video: ShortParis Revisits War, Wolves and Workers' Rights to Process Soviet History(ies) in Today's Russia	Monuments' War in Estonia Maria Kapajeva, Estonian Academy of Arts, Enforced Memory? Michal Pavlásek, Czech Academy of Sciences, "In Kyiv, They Fight for Prague..." Intersections of Migration, Racial Hierarchization and Post-Socialist Memory Culture in the Czech Republic	Heritage during the Russo-Ukrainian War Svitlana Shlipchenko, Center for Urban Studies NGO; Institute for Philosophy, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine; Kyiv National University of Construction and Architecture, The (Post)Colonial (Post)Soviet: Rethinking the Uneasy Pasts in Ukrainian Cities Milena Chorna, Ukrainian Cultural Foundation, National Museum of the History of Ukraine in the Second World War, Choices we make: Resilience of Ukrainian Museum Workers under Fire Oksana Dovgoplova, Odesa National University, Working	and Gottwald in transition – statues and memorials after Velvet revolution in Czechoslovakia Oldřich Tůma, Czech Academy of Sciences, Politics of memory in post-communist Czechia and Slovakia.
--	---	---	--	---	---	---

					Through the imperial Heritage in Ukraine: The Case of Odesa
--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Day 2: Thu, 21 September, 14.00-16.00, Parallel Panels 3

Room M213 P3.1 Museum Communities and Mnemonic Dialogues	Room M342 P3.2 Translating Memories: Postsocialism, Nostalgia, Archive	Room M649 P3.3 Public History in Practice: State Initiative and Public Participation in the Co-creation of Narratives of Collective Trauma in Central and Eastern Europe II	Room M328 P3.4 Post 1989: Revolutions, Ruptures, and Longing for the Past	Room M225 P3.5 Roundtable: Rhetorics of Colonialism and Russia's War in Ukraine	Room 648 P3.6: The Memory of 20th Century Russia (online panel)
Chair: Ulla Savolainen , University of Helsinki Magdalena Buchczyk , Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Tracing Collections & Evoking Textural Memories in Post-socialist Europe Linara Dovydaitytė , Tartu University,	Chair: Anita Pluwak , Tallinn University Claudiu Turcus , Babeş-Bolyai University, Westalgia and the Orphanage of Communism in Post-1989 Romanian Fictional Narratives Iona Luca , National	Chair: Dovilė Budrytė , Georgia Gwinnett College Dovilė Budrytė , Georgia Gwinnett College, Memory Wars and Mnemonic Cooperation: The Relationship of the Roma Holocaust Narratives to the	Chair: Milica Popović , CERI-Sciences Po Paris Till Hilmar , University of Vienna, The Social Memory of Economic Ruptures: Small and Large Narratives about the Post-1989 Period in East Germany and the Czech Republic	Chair: Daria Gordeeva , LMU Munich Participants: Tatiana Zhurzhenko , Centre for East European and International Studies, Berlin Maria Mälksoo ,	Chair: Angela Brintlinger , Ohio State University Ekaterina V. Klimenko , Polish Academy of Sciences, Martyrological in Form, Statist in Content: The Russian Orthodox Church and the Memory of the Great

Vytautas Magnus University in Kaunas Collecting and Mediating Memories in the Museum: The Baltic case Beata Nessel-Lukasik, Maria Grzegorzewska University, A Relational Museum and the Democratization of Memory in a Historical Museum Anežka Brožová, Charles University; Czech Academy of Sciences, Institutionalizing Memory in the Hlučín Region	Taiwan Normal University, Communist Surveillance Files Going Global Emilia Diana Popa, Tallinn University, Romanian Slow Films and the Specificity of the Romanian Cultural Memory of the Communist Past Natalija Arlauskaitė, Vilnius University, Politics of Voice in Post-Soviet Archival Film	Leading Trauma Stories in Lithuania Violeta Davoliūtė, Vilnius University, Vienna Wiesenthal Institute for Holocaust Studies, The Baltic Model of Civic-Patriotic History: Engaging National and European Audience Viktorija Rimaitė-Beržiūnienė, Vilnius University, Military Academy of Lithuania, Memories in Conflict: Exploring Representations of the Traumas of the Nazi and Soviet Occupations in the Public Sphere in Lithuania Liucija Vervečkienė, Vilnius University, Commemorating Heroic Armed Resistance: Intersections between State-level and Family memory	Jogilė Ulinskaitė, Vilnius University, Stories of Negotiated Success during the Post-communist Transformation in Lithuania Marta Chmielewska, European University Institute in Florence, Making Sense of the 1990s: Global Economy in the Memories the Polish Corsetry Industry Workers Merilyn Meristo, Tallinn University Joosep Heinsalu, University of Tartu, Foreign Language Teachers' Professional Memory: The Recollections of the Soviet Period	University of Copenhagen Dirk Uffelmann, Justus Liebig University (JLU), Giessen	Patriotic War Anna Vichkitova, Harvard University, Memory of the Soviet Union in the Twenty First Century: The New Holy Martyrs of Russia in the U.S. Maria Matskevich, independent scholar, Soviet POWs' Representations in Soviet and Post-Soviet War Movies
--	---	---	--	---	--

Day 3: FRI, 22 September, 9.30-11.30, Parallel Panels 4

Room M213 P4.1 Museum Memories of Socialism	Room M342 P4.2 Translating Memories: Multilingualism, Translation, Transition	Room M649 P.4.3 Museum, Theatre and Memory (online)	Room M328 P4.4 Traveling in Time: Changing Cultural and Social Carriers of Memory in Post-Socialist Hungary	Room M225 P4.5 Difficult Heritage in Eastern Europe: Remembering Violence across the Region	Room M648 P4.6 Local and Individual Agency in the Memory of War and Occupation, from the Second World War to Russia's Attack on Ukraine
Chair: Linara Dovydaitytė, Tartu University, Vytautas Magnus University in Kaunas Ina Belcheva, Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University, Narrating Socialism at the Art Museum: The Bulgarian case Ene Kõresaar, University of Tartu, Museum Memories after Post-Communism: Representing Soviet-time Collaboration in Baltic History Museums	Chair: Simona Mitroiu, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University Eneken Laanes, Tallinn University, Katja Petrowskaja's Translational Poetics of Memory Ksenia Robbe, University of Groningen, Re-voicing Post-Soviet/ Post-apartheid Transitions and the Problems of Implication in the Writing of Svetlana Alexievich and Antjie Krog Aigi Heero, Tallinn	Chair: Kirsti Jõesalu, University of Tartu Yujie Zhu, Australian National University, Hot Interpretations of Difficult Heritage: the Memorial Hall of the Nanjing Massacre in China Doris Mironescu and Andreea Mironescu, Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu, Literary History in Transnational and Transmedial Frames: Dialogic Memory in a Poetry Museum Jovana Janinovic,	Chair: Tímea Jablonczay, Milton Friedman Miltity Izabella Agárdi, Institute of Advanced Studies Kőszeg (iASK), University of Pannonia, Memory at Work: The Changing Notions of Work and Female Workers in Rural Societies during the Period of Transitions and Globalisation Anna Menyhért, Budapest University of Jewish Studies, Changing Representations of Bystanders during the	Chair: Anna Topolska, independent scholar Laura Demeter, University of Bamberg, Monuments to the Heroes, Soviet Legacy in the Romanian Space Post-1945 Georgyi Kasianov, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Babyn Yar as a Stolpersteine: How Politics of History Turns into History of Politics Margaret Comer, University College London, Contested and Competing	Chair: Valentyna Kharkun, Nizhyn Mykola Gogol State University Kristo Nurmis, Tallinn University, "A Highly Developed System of Lies and Deception": How the Soviets Made Sense of Nazi Propaganda in the Baltics, 1944-49 Mischa Gabowitsch, RECET, University of Vienna, Commemorating War and Occupation in Provincial Belarus, Ukraine, and Russia, 1945-65

Péter Erdősi and Noémi Kertész, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest and University of Miskolc, Representing Solidarność in a Hungarian Museum in the 2000s Helena Kruder, University of Cambridge, Unresolved Tensions: Representing the East German Experience across Berlin's Memoryscape	University, Crossing Borders: Dmitrij Kapitelman's Novel Eine Formalie in Kiew (A Formality in Kyiv)	University of Montenegro, Tourism between Trauma and Trabant: Silencing Dissonance in European museums of Communism Joanna Nizyńska, Indiana University in Bloomington, Oedipus 2018: Justice, Investigative Theater, and the Polish-Jewish Past	Holocaust: From Hungarian Novels of the 1960s to Digital Platforms of the 2010s Attila Pók, Institute of Advanced Studies Kőszeg, Agents of Change: Tensions between Scholarly and Public Historical Uses of Memory in Post-socialist Hungary Edit Zsadányi, Eötvös Loránd University of Budapest, The Wisdom of the Subaltern in the Novels of László Krasznahorkai and Sofi Oksanen	Memory in the Baltics: Narratives of Suffering at Sites of Holocaust Violence in Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania Anastasia Felcher, Vera and Donald Blinken Open Society Archives at CEU, Jewish Past in Moldova as Memory: Between Anti-Jewish Violence and Peaceful Neighborhood	Yevgenia Belorusets, independent artist, Fragmented Memories. Executed Past. How and for What Purpose to Preserve Individual Memories and Perceptions of the Past, if the Past Becomes One of the Battlefields of an Ongoing War of Aggression? Aapo Roselius and Tuomas Tepora, Tampere University, "Debt of Honor": Finnish World War II Memory Culture and the Estonian "Soomepoisid" War Veterans in the Early 1990s
--	--	---	---	--	--

Day 3: FRI, 22 September, 15.30-17.30, Parallel Panels 5

Room M213 P5.1 Memorialization and Materialization of	Room M342 P5.2 Translating memories: Mass	Room 649 P5.3 Memory Agency: Old and New	Room M328 P5.4 Situated Border Memory Regimes in	Room M225 P5.5 The Politics of War and Memory	Room M648 P5.6 Roundtable (hybrid):
---	---	--	--	---	---

the (Difficult) Past	Culture of Suspicion, Templates	Mnemonic Actors	Transition		Reconstituting Publics through Remembering Transitions: Notes from the 'Fieldwork' in Poland and Germany
Chair: Rebeka Põldsam, University of Tartu Olha Martyniuk, University of Regensburg; Leibniz Institute for East and Southeast European Studies (IOS) Regensburg, Remembering the Fallen Soviet Soldiers in World War II in Ukrainian cities (1991-2021) Anna (Ania) Greszta, University of Amsterdam, "The Russian Military Disneyland": Conspiratorial Memory in the Cathedral of the Russian Armed Forces Pille Runnel, Inês Moreira, Nico Carpentier, Ruth-Helene	Chair: Diana Popa, Tallinn University Dorota Anita Pluwak, Tallinn University, "They Did a Bad Thing": Historical Fantasy Novel, the Galician Peasant Revolt of 1846, and Contemporary Debates on Democracy and Social Justice Balazs Varga, ELTE University Budapest, Imagined Socialism – Post-socialism and Post-Cold War in Contemporary Eastern European Screen Culture Maria Plichta, University of Amsterdam, First As a Tragedy, Then As "the Cringiest Film About an Important Subject": Katyń, Smoleńsk, and	Chair: Zoltan Dujisin, Université Catholique de Louvain Marju Meschin, Tallinn University, Estonian State Propaganda Agency and its Influence on the Estonians' Historical Memory in the Era of Silence (1934–1940) Ulla Savolainen, University of Helsinki, Memorability through Postmemory: Reception of Memory of Stalinist Repression of Ingrian Finns in Finland Mykola Makhortykh and Maryna Sydorova, University of Bern, Memory Warriors or Memory Peacemakers? How Generative AIs Deal with Memories about	Chair: Tuomas Tepora, Tampere University Ekaterina Melnikova, independent scholar, 'Border Memory' Economy in the Russian-Finnish Borderland: Tourism, Grassroots Memory, and Politics Virpi Kaisto & Elena Nikiforova, University of Eastern Finland ; CISR, Helsinki, History and Memory in the Russian-Finnish Borderland: Neighbourship under Transformation Elena Nikiforova, CISR, Helsinki, Exploring Narva's Past and Future: Documentary Theatre and Other Projects Petia Mankova,	Chair: Ene Kõresaar, University of Tartu Yurii Latysh, Visiting Researcher of the European Humanities University; Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, Politics of Memory of Ukraine During the Russo-Ukrainian War Elo-Hanna Seljamaa, University of Tartu, Layers and Encounters From Within and Without: The Defence Forces Cemetery in Tallinn Milica Popović, Po CERI, The Silence of Saying No: Remembering Deserters Siobhan Kattago, University of Tartu, The Shock of the Abyss:	Chair: Ksenia Robbe, University of Groningen Ksenia Robbe, University of Groningen, Introduction and Methodology Agnieszka Mrozik, Polish Academy of Sciences, Dialogic Remembering through Public Events (Film Reception and Discussion) Andrei Zavadski, Technical University Dortmund, Dialogic Remembering through Workshops Discussants: Joanna Wawrzyniak, University of Warsaw and Karen Worcman Director of the Museu da Pessoa, São Paulo

Melioranski, Estonian National Museum, Lab2PT-University of Minho, Charles University, Estonian Academy of Arts, Palimpsestic Memorializations of World War II: A Visual Study on the Estonian Memorialscape Dzmitry Suslau, UCL School of Slavonic and East European Studies, Mission [Im]possible: Lithuania's New National Monument	the Transmission of Memory Kinga Polynczuk-Alenius, Polish Academy of Sciences, Anti-Russian Conspiracy Theories and Cultural Memory of Russian Imperialism in Poland	the Holocaust in Ukraine Inge Melchior, University of Maastricht, The Power of Personal Stories in Translating Memories from CEE to WE	University of Tromso, Memories of War and Cold War at the Norwegian-Russian Border: Recent Developments	Totalitarianism as the Burden of Our Time
--	--	--	---	---	--